OUR new patterns of PAPER HANGINGS for the Season of 1895 are approaching completion. Every pattern in our sample books will be a new design, never before shown to the trade. We shall not recolor any old patterns, but, on the contrary, our entire collection will be fresh, new and original. We are certain it will be the largest collection of new patterns ever shown by any manufacturer, and probably as large a collection of new patterns as will be shown in the combined lines of any three or four of our competitors.

We have virtually two factories and the new samples have been colored and designed by two different sets of colorists and designers, so as to get the greatest variety of ideas. We do not claim merit for the line on the score of its size only—it is, without doubt, the most carefully designed and colored collection we have ever produced, and will embrace every quality and grade of PAPER HANGING, from Brown Blanks to the finest Pressed Papers, so that any dealer can easily and successfully do his entire business with our patterns.

Our salesmen will call on the trade in due season. We solicit a continuation of your liberal patronage.
